

WASHINGTON METROPOLITAN AREA TRANSIT COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, DC

ORDER NO. 6503

IN THE MATTER OF:

Served January 29, 2002

Application of SKYHAWK LOGISTICS,) INC., for a Certificate of) Authority -- Irregular Route) Operations)
Case No. AP-2001-100

Applicant seeks a certificate of authority to transport passengers in irregular route operations between points in the Metropolitan District. Applicant once held WMATC Certificate of Authority No. 406, but it was revoked for applicant's willful failure to comply with the insurance provisions of the Compact and regulations thereunder.¹ The current application is unopposed.

The Compact, Title II, Article XI, Section 7(a), authorizes the Commission to issue a certificate of authority if it finds that the proposed transportation is consistent with the public interest and that the applicant is fit, willing, and able to perform the proposed transportation properly, conform to the provisions of the Compact, and conform to the rules, regulations, and requirements of the Commission.

Applicant proposes commencing operations with one van. Applicant's proposed tariff contains an annual rate for shuttle service under a contract with the U.S. Department of Transportation.

Applicant filed a balance sheet as of August 31, 2001, showing assets of $1,032,208; liabilities of $631,171; and equity of $401,037. Applicant's projected operating statement for the first twelve months of WMATC operations shows WMATC revenue of $89,229; other revenue of $4,629,735; expenses of $4,108,124; and net income of $610,840.

Applicant certifies it has access to, is familiar with, and will comply with the Compact and the Commission's rules and regulations thereunder.

Based on the evidence in this record, the Commission finds that the proposed transportation is consistent with the public interest and that applicant is fit, willing, and able to perform the proposed transportation properly, conform to the provisions of the Compact, and conform to the rules, regulations, and requirements of the Commission.

We will reissue Certificate No. 406 to applicant upon applicant's compliance with certain conditions, including payment of the $100 annual fee for 2001 that was overdue at the time Certificate No. 406 was revoked² and submission of a WMATC Certificate of Insurance
